

Present Simple & Present Continuous - Corrección

Exercise 1 – Complete with Present Simple or Present Continuous

- a. Where's Nigel? He's having a bath.
- b. I don't listen to the radio very often.
- c. Listen! Somebody is singing.
- d. How often do you watch TV?
- e. Lisa is very tired. She wants to go home now.
- f. I'm sorry, I don't understand. Can you repeat it, please?
- g. It's really late. I'm going home now. Are you coming with me?
- h. What time does your father finish work in the evenings?
- i. You can turn off the CD player. I'm not listening to it.
- j. Martin doesn't like meat. He prefers fish.
- k. The girl in the painting is playing the piano.
- l. My dog's not dangerous. He doesn't bite.
- m. Why are you wearing sunglasses? It's raining!
- n. Be careful! The baby is putting that pencil in his mouth!

Exercise 2 – Write sentences (Present Simple or Continuous)

- a. Usually she works at the office, but this week she's working at home.
- b. The sun is shining. It's a beautiful day!
- c. You aren't eating very much at the moment. Are you ill?
- d. I don't remember the name of the hotel.
- e. I'm studying Chinese this year. It's very difficult.
- f. Are you watching the television at the moment?

Exercise 3 – Translate into English

- a. Pedro is playing the guitar.
- b. Normally I drink tea, but now I'm drinking coffee.
- c. What are you doing? I'm reading the newspaper.
- d. Do you understand what I want to say?
- e. What are Julio and Elena doing? They are watching TV.
- f. What do Julio and Elena do? They are architects.
- g. I like that song. Who is singing it?

Exercise 4 – Put the verb in the correct tense

- a. I think he's away.
- b. You know what I mean.
- c. She is always complaining.
- d. We always start at nine.
- e. Scientists believe the weather is changing.
- f. I don't see what the problem is.
- g. Why are you looking at me like that?
- h. Now I understand what she wants.